Fashionably Conscious Collection Party at Park Grove Sales Gallery

Miami's premiere Fashion Fundraiser Fashionably Conscious teamed up with Terra Group and The Related Group to host their first Collection Party of 2014 at Park Grove, the most luxurious residential towers planned for Coconut Grove. At the Fashionably Conscious cocktail part, designer items (including Chanel, Prada, Valentino, and Dolce & Gabana) were collected from Miami's most fashionable VIPs and philanthropists for their September sale to benefit Coconut Grove Cares.

Park Grove developers Jorge Perez, Pedro Martin and David Martin maintain strong ties to the Coconut Grove community and to Fashionably Conscious through their architectural developments and spouses who maintain an active involvement with the organization.
